

FOCUS
GREATER SYRACUSE
FORUM

MEET THE PEACEMAKERS

FREE TO ALL
Noon Thursday, Sept. 13
at La Casita Cultural Center,
107 Otisco St., Syracuse
Stop in on Primary Day and learn about the gallery and the neighborhood changes.
Join the Discussion!

Peacemaking is making a difference on Syracuse's Westside. Learn about the Take Back the Streets campaign, resident leadership development, and collaboration among service providers.

PEACEMAKERS TAKE BACK THE STREETS

SPECIAL TIME AND PLACE

Noon THURSDAY, Sept. 13

La Casita Cultural Center, 109 Otisco St.

- Near Westside
- Peacemaking
- Project

Westside residents are making a difference in the community, as Peacemakers and as members of a Community Impact Team with Take Back the Streets. Led by the Peacemaking Project/ Center for Court Innovation, Take Back the Streets aims to improve health and safety in Syracuse's Westside.

CLICK HERE TO REGISTER

FREE PARKING at La Casita lot off Tully Street

Syracuse University
College of Arts & Sciences
La Casita

“La Casita is a program of the College of Arts and Sciences established to advance an educational and cultural agenda of civic engagement through research, cultural heritage preservation, media, and the arts, bridging the Hispanic communities of Syracuse University and Central New York.”

For more information call 315-448-8732 or email focus@syrqov.net.

ALL ARE WELCOME!